

THE PLACEMENT CELL NEWSLETTER

NOVEMBER 2025

VOLUME V

NOVEMBER REPORT

The Placement Cell initiated the month of November with an enthusiastic approach on various fronts. The Cell reached new levels of accomplishments and success this month, as several promising opportunities were introduced for the students across dynamic profiles. This month's success was reflected through the efficient coordination and sustained dedication shown by the Cell along with the students.

This month of November has proven to be particularly productive on the internship front, as various recognised names in the corporate sector stepped in and offered opportunities in diverse domains. Some of the notable names that offered promising internship roles were Paytm, Times Now, and The Man Company. Shark Tank featured startup Arata also came in with an enriching internship prospect for our students at the campus. Overall, the month showcased a strong and evident success in the Cell's internship achievements.

Along with all these successful prospects offered on the internship landscape, several corporate organisations also offered highly noteworthy placement prospects. BDO RISE initiated its recruitment process this month, adding to the range of placement opportunities available to students. It was accompanied by other notable companies such as HDFC and Justdial, both of which featured in this month's placement charts with high potential placement opportunities. Furthermore, Zomato, a prominent name in the food delivery sector, also recruited students from our campus. These opportunities showcased the constant dedication and effort the Cell puts into bringing appealing opportunities for the students.

Overall, November emerged as a month of meaningful progress and steady success. The month witnessed several distinguished organisations appearing on both the placement and internship fronts, marking new milestones for the Cell. With diligent efforts, diverse opportunities, and continued engagement within the corporate sphere, the Placement Cell remains committed to advancing the best interests of students and expanding the range of professional avenues available to them.
